ANTI RAGGING COMMITTEE

The anti-ragging committee of GRT college of Nursing is to ensure the safety and well-being of students within a campus by preventing and addressing incidents of ragging. The committee works to create a safe and respectful environment for all students, free from any form of harassment, bullying, or intimidation. It aims to educate students about the harmful effects of ragging and to promote a culture of mutual respect, tolerance, and understanding among students. The committee also plays a crucial role in investigating and taking action against any reported cases of ragging, to ensure that perpetrators are held accountable and that victims receive the necessary support and protection. Ultimately, committee works to promote a positive and inclusive academic community where all students can thrive and reach their full potential.
