GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL COMMITTEE

The college Grievance Redressal Committee functions to provide a fair and impartial platform for individuals to raise complaints or grievances related to any issues they may be facing. The committees ensure to address and resolve grievances in a timely manner, ensure transparency and accountability in the process, and provide a safe and confidential space for individuals to voice their concerns. The committee aims to promote a positive and supportive work or organizational culture by effectively addressing and resolving grievances of both faculty members and students in a systematic and efficient manner.
